

PURIFY

Purification

Purify assists individuals in releasing toxic emotions and entering a cleansing state. It revitalizes the energy system, washing away negative influences. This blend supports individuals who feel trapped by negativity or toxicity. Purify provides freedom from past habits and patterns. It is especially helpful in combating toxic feelings of hate, rage, enmeshment, and in severing other negative attachments.

Like Lemongrass, Purify makes a wonderful space cleanser. It can clear negative energy from the household and the environment, as well as cleanse the air of odor and harmful microorganisms. Diffused in the air, these oils can facilitate emotional breakthroughs. In order to heal, one must receive. But in order to receive, one must first release what is blocking the new, clean energy from entering. Purify supports individuals in constantly releasing the old so they may be open to the new.
